

Restaurants

Do try to make a reservation in advance except on tapas places!

>100 euros

- * Àbac
Two Michelin stars restaurant
- * Passadís del Pep
Lavish in fish
- * 41°
An experiment by Ferran Adrià. 41 dishes.
- * Gaig
Long standing well-deserved reputation

50-100 Euros

- * Racò d'en Cesc
Excellent traditional cuisine
- * Alkimia
non-trivial flavours from a great cook
- * Can Vallès
A true catalan excellent place.
- * Cinc sentits
Surprising
- * Dos palillos
Asian-Catalan fusion
- * Tickets
Again Ferran Adrià offering over 100 of unbelievable mouth bites.
- * Cuore
Nice food, nice space.

20-50 Euros (depending on wine)

- * El café de la Acadèmia
Just a touch of sophistication. Always crowded.
- * La Paradeta
Point at your preferred fish and they cook it for you. Simple.
- * Barceloneta
Nice place for paella and fish
- * Els cargols
Have you ever tried snails? This is the place.
- * Asador de Aranda
Try Lechazo cooked in the oven
- * Florentina
If you want to try an old dish from El Quijote, go for duelos y quebrantos

Tapas

Too many places in bcn. Some are very tourist oriented.

* Cerveceria Catalana

A good classic

* Lagunak

Away from the center, a true vasc place

* Monvinic

Sophisticated selections of wine and food.

* La Bodega de la Palma

Usually less crowded than other turistic places

Going out away from monuments

* Gràcia

A neighborhood of choice for Erasmus.

* Raval and Ciutat Vella

Full of ethnic life

* Born

Nice emerging grid of bars and restaurants from anywhere.

Music

* Taller de Musics

Every night a different style (flamenco, jazz, salsa,...)

* Jamboree

For jazz

Classical Music

* Palau de la Música

Such a beautiful place!

* Auditori

* Liceu

Opera House. They play La Sonnambula (Bellini)

Cocktails

* Boada

* Dry Martini

* Gimlet

Football

* Barça plays on Sunday Feb 2 against València in the stadium.

* They also play on Feb 9 in Sevilla.

* The tradition of watching games on bars covers all the city.